LONG DESCRIPTION

- The Eighth Sound is a forty-minute collaborative audiovisual installation created by Ronen Tanchum with Ehud Banai for Beit Guvrin National Park. Installed inside the ancient cave system, the work unfolds across twenty distinct projection surfaces, each treated as an encounter between stone, voice, image, and memory. Banai's voice, music, stories, and spiritual presence form the emotional score, while generated light moves through limestone, arches, openings, sand, and darkness as if discovered inside the site rather than placed on top of it.
